For 50 years, RS EDEN has supported individuals with substance use disorders, with a person-centered approach to meeting unique needs.

RS EDEN’s mission is to create thriving, just communities where healing occurs and new beginnings are possible. Our services include individual and group counseling, relapse prevention, medication-assisted treatment, health care, independent living skills, and more; all delivered in a trauma-informed environment. Our team of skilled professionals and peers has extensive experience working with diverse and complex challenges, focusing on the strengths of every client.

PROGRAMS & SERVICES

Residential Treatment

Our residential treatment program, Eden House, is a modified therapeutic community, utilizing trauma-informed, culturally-responsive, cognitive behavioral approaches to empower change.

Our distinct men’s and women’s programs provide gender-responsive and gender-affirming care, while recognizing that no single person’s journey is the same.

Outpatient Treatment with Transitional Housing

Successful recovery requires a home. RS EDEN’s two gender-affirming outpatient programs include housing, a critical step after intensive, residential treatment.

Our women’s program welcomes children! Supporting mothers while they continue parenting, RS EDEN provides treatment for mothers with an array of case management and wrap-around services to for the entire family.

Outpatient Treatment

From one hour a month to 30 hours a week, our outpatient programs will adapt to meet your needs. The time a person spends in outpatient treatment is a partnership between the person and our trusted team.

Alumni & Peer Support

Knowing a person who is successful in their recovery is life-changing. Embedded within all levels of care are peers who have lived experience with substance use disorders, who know your challenges, and can walk alongside you to overcome them.

Comprehensive and Rule 25 Assessments

Our assessors prioritize connection. We provide in-person and remote assessments to help shape your recovery journey. There is no referral needed obtain an assessment.

RS EDEN is here to help you, your family, friends, and community. It is never too late, or too early, to seek help. In partnership, RS EDEN builds new beginnings.
